LifeChanges Boutique Presents “The Breast Test”

October is Breast Cancer Awareness month, and pink ribbons are being displayed everywhere to symbolize the commitment to find a cure for this disease. In order to recognize Breast Cancer Awareness Month, LifeChanges Boutique, a health and healing boutique for women living with cancer, will be sponsoring “The Breast Test”. This event will encourage participants to test and expand your knowledge about breast health, disease detection, breast cancer myths and fact, advances in treatment options, survivorship issues, resources and support services.

Features include presentations by guest speakers, and exhibitors will display new products and literature. Light refreshments, raffle prizes and handout items will also be provided. All raffle proceeds will be donated to The Pink Out Women’s Cancer Fund.

Featured presenters and they topics they will be covering include:

“Do You Know The REAL Truth About Mammograms?” Michelle Crone, RTR (M), Women’s Imaging Center, Hanover Hospital

“What Are Foods That Fight Back?” Nadine Wolf, Director of Food and Nutrition Services, Hanover Hospital

“Does Cancer Run In Your Family?” Dr. Marc Hirsh, M.D. PC, and Lynn Eib, Cancer Patient Advocate, Author and Cancer Survivor

“Is A Clinical Trial Right For Me?”Dr. Robert Rice, M.D., Ph.D., Alliance Hematology Oncology

“Does Cancer Cause Depression?”Mickie R. Singer, Mental Health Advocate and Educator

This event is scheduled for Wednesday, October 20, 2010 from 5 – 9 p.m. at the Hanover Hospital Wellness & Education Center and LifeChanges Boutique, 400 York Street, Hanover, PA. The exhibit is open from 5 – 9 and the speakers are scheduled to start at 6 PM.

“The Breast Test” is a FREE community breast cancer awareness event hosted by LifeChanges Boutique.

Registration is requested. Please call 633-1111.
